

Key Analysis Outcomes

Customer Demographics

- Gender:
 - Male customers make up 50% of the customer base, with a churn rate of 25%.
 - Female customers also make up 50%, with a slightly lower churn rate of 23%.
- Senior Citizens:
 - Represent 16% of the customer base but have a churn rate of 42%, significantly higher than non-senior customers.

Service Usage

- Internet Service:
 - Customers using DSL internet have a churn rate of 23%.
 - Fiber optic customers experience the highest churn rate at 52%.
 - Customers with no internet service have the lowest churn rate of 8%.
- Streaming Services:
 - Customers who use streaming TV and movies services have a churn rate of 34%, higher than those who do not use these services (20%).

Contract Type

- Monthly Contracts:
 - Customers with monthly contracts have the highest churn rate of 43%.
- One-Year Contracts:
 - Churn rate drops to 11% for customers on one-year contracts.
- Two-Year Contracts:
 - Customers on two-year contracts have the lowest churn rate at 3%.

Payment Method

- Electronic Checks:
 - Churn rate of 45%, making it the payment method with the highest churn.
- Credit Card, Bank Transfer, and Mailed Check:

- These methods have churn rates of 16% , 15% , and 22% , respectively.

Tenure

- Customers with tenure less than 12 months account for 62% of total churn, indicating a significant drop-off early in the customer lifecycle.
- Customers with tenure greater than 24 months have a churn rate of only 5% .

Monthly Charges

- Customers with higher monthly charges (above $80) have a churn rate of 40% , compared to 15% for those with lower charges.